M. Benjamin. Letter from Fur Loranis 6/12/50, original + + + Written you (den Ole) from West Point, Missouri ... no idea of the immense number of people & journey as to Jls ...
Early morning free date is one ctin str of teams ... there has been about 6000 hours rep'd at the fort + about 30000 people. NO more than half the immigrants has passed yet, & whether see to meet & report themselves to the fort is doubtful. It ain't no number go to the fort 40 calling ... a number & request their names at the fort. [identical original] I expected to find the name of — Stuy + Stuy ... but did not find them ... they say & put up giving their names ...

The Nebraska River is 1/2 mile to two miles wide.

Sixty miles along Flaming we came to CR ... off of ... chumney ... bluffs up side of morning ... For SB 20 m below here I saw the RMS. 150 m in ... party & get the horses, & I & go a mile or two to send them to you & then overtake the tr
